

Some Resources – everything here has a free version, for now...

- The Amazing Web 2.0 Projects Book (pdf), Terry Freedman (Ed)
<http://www.ictineducation.org/home-page/2010/3/15/free-web-20-projects-book-now-available.html>
- Bloomfire – www.bloomfire.com – the non LMS, see the manifesto
- Cool Tools for Schools (on wikispaces) -
<http://cooltoolsforschools.wikispaces.com/>
- Delicious - www.delicious.com – social bookmarking
- Diigo – www.diigo.com – social bookmarking, can create groups, sticky notes, and other stuff. Check out upgrade to Diigo educator account
- Doodle – www.doodle.com – online scheduler, can choose best day/time
- Facebook – www.facebook.com – check out groups and fan pages
- Google Docs – <http://docs.google.com> – great for collaborative projects
- GradeGuru – www.gradeguru.com – startup by McGraw-Hill, note sharing tool aimed at college students, community rules, turnitin® checking
- Ning – <http://go.ning.com/pearsonsponsorship/> - (create your own social network)
– Pearson sponsors free mini ning subscriptions for educators
- Office Live - <http://workspace.officelive.com/en-us/> - web based versions of Microsoft Word, PowerPoint, Excel and OneNote – 2010
- RSS for Educators – Blogs, Newsfeeds, Podcasts, and Wikis in the Classroom (book) John G. Hendron, ISTE (www.iste.org)
- Studystack – www.studystack.com – students can create their own study materials
- Twitter – www.twitter.com – where IM has gone, short and sweet
- Twtpoll – www.twtpoll.com – polls and surveys through Twitter
- Voki - www.voki.com – great for avatar intro to an online class, or other intros
- Wifitti – www.wifitti.com - great for polling – in the classroom and online. Works with mobile devices and right at the website
- 21st Century Technology Skills - good info and ideas
http://www.p21.org/index.php?option=com_content&task=view&id=61&Itemid=120
- 80 Online Tools, References, and Resources -
<http://www.edutopia.org/groups/technology-integration-high-school/57108>