

Speaker: Brett Freireich, Senior Principal Solutions Consultant

Brett is a Senior Principal Solutions Consultant, focusing on the US Public Sector. He's been with OpenText for over four years, but has over twenty years' experience in knowledge management and information governance. Brett has held senior roles within the deployment, product management, and presales teams during his career, and continues to work with public sector agencies to enhance their capabilities around enterprise information management.