Manage video and alarms with VSaaS

Mar 01, 2022

Each year demand for video surveillance continues to grow, as organizations seek to increase the security and safety of people and property. Searching for a solution that scales with their operations while minimizing upfront investments is challenging for companies with many locations.

Video surveillance as a service (VSaaS) is an easily scalable solution that addresses those needs. It helps users to monitor, manage events, record, and replay video security footage from anywhere via the cloud. With VSaaS, cameras are the only hardware investment needed on-site, which benefits many businesses with space constraints or those that desire little to no equipment on premise. It also eliminates maintenance and decreases costly site visits for storage equipment and server upkeep.

Businesses can operate alarm management and cloud storage directly or outsource to a security operations center (SOC). When a user decides to outsource the alarm management, the service will relay all alarms and insights triggered by the system to the chosen SOC. The SOC can monitor all events across multiple sites 24/7 and deploy the appropriate measures for peace of mind.

Intelligent solutions that work around the clock

Instead of monitoring video footage 24/7, intelligent VSaaS offerings can alert when needed with artificial intelligence (AI) at the edge and in the cloud. Cameras with built-in video analytics – a form of AI – autonomously detect pre-defined situations and trigger the cloud-based alarm management service. If needed, the cloud service will alert users to take appropriate action. When implementing intelligent solutions, it is important that the video analytics is robust enough to minimize false alarms by differentiating between real security events and false triggers – such as snow, wind (moving trees), rain, hail, and water reflections – that can make video data more difficult to interpret.

Nevertheless, an actual alarm can still be unwanted based on customer requirements, which can result in high costs because some response is needed. With additional enhancements to VSaaS, an AI-based alarm verification service can help filter unwanted alerts to only detect true events. For example, an animal detected by the camera alongside a perimeter is a valid alert, but unimportant for perimeter security. An AI-based alarm verification service will filter such unwanted alerts. The advantages of the service are minimizing false alarms, reducing costs, and strengthening the reliability of the security application. This service makes it possible to tailor alerts to a customer's needs, filtering unwanted alarms, increasing

Webinars

Your Powerful Tool for Generating Quality Sales Leads

Budget constraints and increasingly hectic work schedules can often prohibit today's security decision makers from physically attending seminars, conferences and expositions. Instead, it is important that today's security product and service vendors seek innovative and cost-effective ways to disseminate information and engage prospects and clients in a timely manner to spotlight new technologies, product launches, strategic partnerships and more.

That's why we offer a turnkey webinar solution that allows security products marketers to tap into our expertise and expansive market reach and drive valuable customer leads.

Vendor Webinars

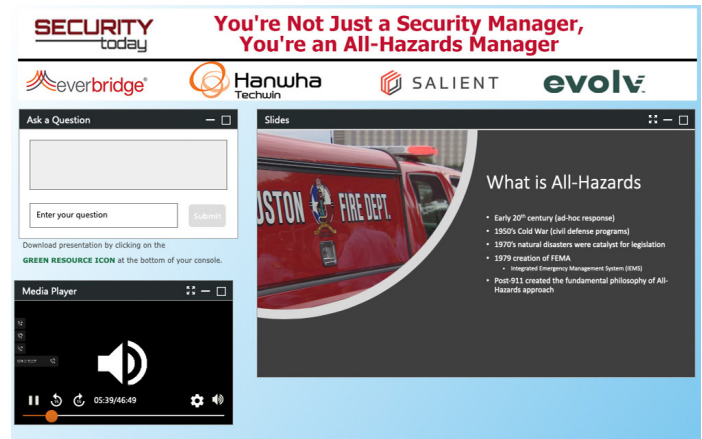

The unique presentation of a webinar forum allows clients to deliver information and engage participants in a timely, cost-effective manner. Whether at home or on the road, participants can view presentations through their web browsers while simultaneously listening to the audio. Discussions can take place in real time, and your audience of security buyers are encouraged to ask presenters questions. You provide the speaker, the topic, and the presentation and collect all the leads.

Editorial Webinars

In addition to single-sponsored customer-supplied webinars, Security Today offers the opportunity for companies to co-sponsor time-sensitive editorial topical webinars. This variation of the popular webinar medium allows a company to sponsor for a fraction of the cost of a sole-sponsored webinar. Plus, the webinar is promoted in the very same fashion as a sole-sponsored webinar.

NEW! Editorial Webinar Speaking Sponsorships

Enhance your editorial webinar sponsorship with a 10-minute speaking opportunity, positioning your organization as a thought leader in the industry and giving you the forum to showcase your products to our engaged audience.

Sponsorship Details:

- Event Promotion and Visibility: Registration development through targeted email promotions, eNewsletters and more
- Branding: Logo placement on event promotions, registration page, webinar dashboard and other event marketing materials
- Presentation (optional): 10-minute presentation (pre-recorded MP4 file or live) following editorial presentation
- Event Reporting: Comprehensive event reporting including all registrants, attendees, questions asked and any other pertinent engagement details

We've reached thousands of security professionals in the past year, including those with titles such as President, Director of Security, Safety & Security Manager, CEO, COO, Electrical Engineer, Project Manager, Operations Manager, and more.*
